How can Financial Peace University change your life?

Financial Peace University seeks to see families in every community working together, helping one another walk daily with peace: with both the peace and security that come from having one's personal finances in control and, more importantly, the peace that comes from knowing and trusting in Christ Jesus. During this 13 week, Biblically-based, life changing outreach you will learn how to remove the stress that comes with financial problems and change your financial future.

Peace & Security

Who is Dave Ramsey?

Dave is the founder of Financial Peace University, host of both a primetime television show on the FOX Business Network and of a nationally syndicated radio program, "The Dave Ramsey Show." He knows what it's like to have it and lose it all! By age 26, he had accumulated a personal real estate portfolio worth over $4 million. By age, 30, he had declared personal bankruptcy. Dave rebuilt his financial life and has gone on to teach others the lessons that he learned the hard way. His Financial Peace University outreach program shows people how to put into practice the proven common-sense principles that will allow them to walk with financial peace.
